

Wednesday 24th February 2021

One Orangutan's Story – Recount

Vocabulary	Conjunctions	Openers	Punctuation
orangutan, rainforest, metallic, machine, crashing, toppling, conflicted, hopeless, disorientated, devastation	and so but because while when although	Moments later,... Without hesitation,... Feeling _____, I... What...? Why...? How...? Where...?	. ? ! ' , ... Use a comma: - after an adverbial opener - to separate items in a list.

Sequence of events	Questions to think about	My notes
The metallic monster arrived... 	What time of day was it? What could you see? What could you hear? How did you feel? What thoughts were going through your head?	- they came at night - a sudden, blinding flash of light - the deafening roar of an engine - alarmed, concerned, anxious - What was this monster? Why was it in my home?
Trying to escape the monster's claws... 	What did you do next? What could you see? What could you hear? What did your mum ask you to do? How did you feel?	- ran away from the biting claws - trees toppling all around us - birds squawking, branches cracking - ordered me to climb the tallest tree - conflicted, terrified – I didn't want to leave but I knew I had to do as my mother said
The following morning... 	What did you do next? What could you see? What could you hear? How did you feel? What thoughts were going through your head?	- covered my ears and closed my eyes - opened my eyes to see smoke - silence – no birds singing, no leaves rustling, no monkeys chattering - disorientated, heartbroken, hopeless - How could anybody destroy something so beautiful?