

Emerald Tree Boa	Questions	Orangutan
Introduction A non-venomous snake. Found in the Amazon rainforest. Fairly solitary animals. Descend to the ground to climb a different tree. Move swiftly from tree to tree. Mostly active at night (nocturnal)	Introduction What type of animal are they? Which area of the world are they often found? When are they most active?
Appearance Distinctively bright green scales. Grow up to 2 metres in length and over 1 kg in weight. One pair of long, sharp teeth, pointing backwards. Forked tongue.	Appearance What colour are they? What size can they grow to? What can they weigh? What are their distinctive features?
Diet Feed mostly on small mammals (rats, bats and possums). Can be hunted by birds of prey.	Diet What do they eat? Are they prey for any other animal?
Habitat Spend most time inhabiting trees. Coil around branches during the day. Often near rivers.	Habitat Where in the rainforest can they be found? Where do they spend most of their time?
Interesting facts Life expectancy of approximately 20 years.	Interesting facts What other interesting information have you found out?	