

Emerald Tree Boa Introduction A non-venemous snake. Found in the Amazon rainforest. Fairly solitary animals. Descend to the ground to climb a different tree. Move swiftly from tree to tree. Mostly active at night (nocturnal)	Questions Introduction What type of animal are they? Which area of the world are they often found? When are they most active?	Orangutan They are a type of _____ They are found in the _____ They are mostly active in the _____ Appearance Distinctively bright green scales. Grow up to 2 metres in length and over 1 kg in weight. One pair of long, sharp teeth, pointing backwards. Forked tongue.	Appearance What colour are they? What size can they grow to? What can they weigh? What are their distinctive features?	Orangutans are _____ They can grow up to _____ and weigh _____ Their distinctive features are _____
Diet Feed mostly on small mammals (rats, bats and possums). Can be hunted by birds of prey.	Diet What do they eat? Are they prey for any other animal?	Their favourite foods are _____ Their predators are _____
Habitat Spend most time inhabiting trees. Coil around branches during the day. Often near rivers.	Habitat Where in the rainforest can they be found? Where do they spend most of their time?	Mostly found in _____ They travel by _____ Interesting facts Life expectancy of approximately 20 years.	Interesting facts What other interesting information have you found out?	Did you know? _____ _____ _____ _____ _____