

Adelita: the Mexican Cinderella – Traditional Tales

L/O: To be able to write a traditional tale	What I think	My teacher thinks
I can remember to:
write an opening which introduces the characters and sets the scene	☐
describe the events building up to the problem	☐
describe problem for the main character	☐
explain how the characters resolve the problem	☐
finish my story with a happy ending	☐
use dialogue between characters to move the story on	☐
use fronted adverbials to add detail about when, where or how.	☐
Edit: Read my writing back and check it makes sense. Check my punctuation A . , ' ! ? Check my spelling. 	☐
Improve: Add, remove, move and substitute words 	☐

Punctuate the sentences below... May I go too? Adelita asked. Are you serious? Dona Michaela replied. We would be too embarassed.	2 marks
--	---