

Will you 'like' me?

I watch my screen cos I wanna see the friends I like get in touch with me.
Will you like me?
Will you like me?

I put my news on my instapage,
a photo too of my latest craze.
Will you like me?
Will you like me?

Hoping for a laugh and hoping for a smile. Oh.
Hoping to be liked for a little while. Oh.

*I can make believe there's a different me,
I can make believe who I wanna be.
Oh_. Oh_.
Why am I afraid if I let you see?
Why am I afraid that you won't like me?
Oh_. Oh_.*

The friends I make, they're not always there.
I'm feeling lonely and they don't care.
Will you like me?
Will you like me?

The online world is an empty place,
friendship means meeting face to face.
Will you like me?
Will you like me?

Hoping for a laugh and hoping for a smile. Oh.
Hoping to be liked for a little while. Oh.

*I can make believe there's a different me,
I can make believe who I wanna be.
Oh_. Oh_.
Why am I afraid if I let you see?
Why am I afraid that you won't like me?
Oh_. Oh_.*

We all need real friends we can trust and who care.
When we need someone they are sure to be there,
showing us we're loved just who we are.

*I can make believe there's a different me,
I can make believe who I wanna be.*

Oh_. Oh_.

Why am I afraid if I let you see?

Why am I afraid that you won't like me?

Oh_. Oh_. Oh_.
