

Scrooge:

Character Description through Dialogue

Scrooge showed that he was

cruel

when he said

"What right have you to be merry? What reason have you to be merry? You're poor enough!"

Scrooge showed that he was

miserly

when he said

"Every idiot who goes about with 'Merry Christmas' on his lips should be boiled with his own pudding and buried with a stake of holly through his heart."

Scrooge showed
that he was

regretful

when he said

"There was a boy singing a Christmas carol at my door last night. I should like to have given him something."

Scrooge showed that he was

heartless

when he said

"If they would rather die, they had better do it, and decrease the surplus population."

Scrooge showed that he was

repentant

when he said

"Ghost of the Future, I fear you more than any spectre I have seen. But as I know your purpose is to do me good, and as I hope to live to be another man from what I was..."
