

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

This Tim Burton special, is a film you will enjoy more than life itself. We follow a young boy named Charlie Bucket who comes from a family with little money. His life gets turned upside down when he wins a once in a lifetime opportunity; a tour of Willy Wonka's Chocolate Factory. Throughout this tremendous tour he encounters spectacular singing Oompa-Loompas, magical rooms made of mouthwatering chocolate and even the man himself; Mr. Wonka. In this Roald Dahl adaptation, Johnny Depp plays an unusual and wacky factory owner which I personally think is his best role yet.
