

Pigeon Impossible

L/O: To plan a newspaper report.

What I think

My teacher thinks

I can remember to:

Plan an introduction

Plan your first and second paragraphs- What and How?

Include some interviews with people involved

Plan a final paragraph

V Pigeon, impossible, Secret agent Walter Beckett, Washington D.C, Bagel, Rocket Ship, Suitcase

C after, before, since, so, because, during, if, and, furthermore, although

O Recently, Furthermore, After, Unexpectedly, Despite, Following this,

P CL, . () “ “ ? !

Name of newspaper: The Kendall Times

Price: 50p

Date: Monday 11th January 2021

Story headline: A Rocket Rumble

Introduction

Who was involved?

A secret agent and a pigeon

What happened?

An unidentified object caused chaos. Looked in a shape of a suitcase

Where did the event take place?

In the middle of Washington D.C.

When did it happen?

Sunday 10th January 2021, at midday

5. Final Paragraph

What might happen in the future? What are the characters doing now?

Police are still looking into the incident

They are working 24 hours a day

Interviews with the secret service are now been taken

It is unknown where the pigeon now is... most likely looking for another bagel

2. Paragraph one.

WHAT happened? Give details on the events.

A rocket ship launched into the air

Scientists believed it was heading to Moscow in Russia

Unexpectedly exploded leaving a huge ash cloud

An unknown object was flying besides it with a human attached

3. Paragraph two

HOW did this happen? Give details on the events.

Members of the public are saying this was all caused by a pigeon and his fixation on a bagel!

A disagreement between the pigeon and a man in a suit caused the flustered bird to get stuck in a suitcase

The rocket was then launched, it is believed the empty-headed bird triggered the launch.

4. Interviews

Who will you interview? How are they involved? What did they say?

The man in a suit (Secret agent Walter Beckett) – Explains his frustration at the Pigeon

Someone on their lunch break at work – Got knocked over by what she describes as a suitcase, very distraught