A ROCKET RUMBLE

(Introduction)

Yesterday, at midday, an unidentified object caused chaos in the middle of Washington D.C. It's believed that a secret agent and a pigeon were at the core of this unusual event. But what caused the events to unfold?

(Paragraph 2- WHAT?)

At 12:30pm, on the busy high streets of Washington D.C, many shoppers witnessed an unexpected rocket launch into the sky! According to some scientists it was heading to Moscow in Russia. However, just before it was out of reach for mankind it exploded! -leaving an ash cloud which surrounded the city. Furthermore, an unknown object which has been described as a suitcase with jet engines was seen flying alongside it.

(Paragraph 3 – HOW?)

Witnesses say a foolish pigeon and its fixation on a plain bagel may have been the cause of this shocking incident. Despite the rumours, it was observed that a disagreement between a man in a suit and the unidentified pigeon caused the flustered bird to get stuck in a suitcase. Moments later, laser beams were shot and a rocket was launched.

(Paragraph 4 – Interviews – Decided to split into two paragraphs)

Following these events, we interviewed a sharp looking man wearing a pristine suit. He preferred to stay anonymous but after some pressure he told us his name was Walter Beckett. "I was just enjoying my freshly baked bagel, watching the busy city of Washington D.C when an empty-headed pigeon wouldn't leave my dinner alone!" Beckett continued to express his anger and frustration towards the pigeon.

(Paragraph 5 – Interviews continued)

Another key witness who was chased around the chaotic high street added “I was walking to get my coffee (from Cool Café) on my lunch break, when suddenly I was knocked to the floor. I glanced behind me and saw what I can only describe as a flying silver suitcase firing deathly laser beams”

(Paragraph 6- Concluding)

Surprisingly, no one was seriously harmed during these unusual and dramatic events. Currently, lots of police, firemen and detectives are investigating the incident further working around the clock, 24 hours a day. Interviews within the secret service are being conducted and they are still on the lookout for their prime suspect. A pigeon. Keep an eye on your bagel! It could be you next...
