

Name

Henry Matisse

Where and when they were born

Born in a small industrial town in northern France called le cateau cambresis on December the 31st he was a New Year's Eve baby and his parents said he was a perfect way to end the year. His father was a grain merchant his first job was a law clerk when his mother gave him art supplies so he got inspiration and decided to become an artist his father was very disappointed after a lot of encouragement of his mother he started experimenting with things and he created a new type of painting fauvism his legacy inspires people today and inspired people in the 19th century