

Roman Numerals Task 1

1. Make the numbers 2, 4 and 7
2. Make the first four multiples of 2
3. Make the answer to 6×2
4. Create the number sentence $50 + \underline{\quad} = 100$ using Roman numerals
5. Make the first four multiples of 5
6. Make the answer to $80 \div 10 =$
7. Create the number sentence $100 - \underline{\quad} = 10$
8. Make the answer to 7×2
9. I'm thinking of a number, I add 10 and divide it by 2 and my answer is 10. What is my number?
10. How many dogs are there if there is a total of 8 legs?

Roman Numerals Task 2

1. Make the numbers 12, 24 and 37
2. Make the first four multiples of 4
3. Make the answer to 6×4
4. Create the number sentence $54 + \underline{\quad} = 100$ using Roman numerals
5. Make the first four multiples of 9
6. Make the answer to $88 \div 8 =$
7. Create the number sentence $100 - 88 = \underline{\quad}$
8. Make the answer to 7×4
9. I'm thinking of a number, I add 10 and divided it by 8 and my answer is 9. What is my number?
10. How many octopuses are there if there is a total of 40 legs?

Roman Numerals Task 3

1. Make the numbers 42, 64 and 87
2. Make the first four multiples of 8
3. Make the answer to 6×8
4. Create the number sentence $68 + \underline{\quad} = 100$ using Roman numerals
5. Make the first four multiples of 9
6. Make the answer to $540 \div 10 =$
7. Create the number sentence $100 - \underline{\quad} = 12$
8. Make the answer to 7×4
9. I'm thinking of a number, I add 20 and divided it by 8 and my answer is 8. What is my number?
10. How many octopuses are there if there is a total of 240 legs?

