

WAGOLL

Space: A description

I felt uneasy about what was going to happen next, a bizarre chill came over me. What was I going to see when I looked out of our cramped spaceship window?

I took a deep breath then moved over to look...

Astounded, I saw a phenomenal glow which came from the huge rotating green and blue planet; Earth. I could see crooked shapes of land with dark formations of mountains and sparkling city lights. I felt amazed and speechless. Earth felt so peaceful surrounded by the limitless dark gloom of space around it. As I looked closer I could start to see...
