

Group 1:

Suffix -ous

Please can you practise these spellings for next week?

These words contain the suffix -ous which is most often used to change concrete nouns (palpable things) to abstract nouns (qualities).

Sometimes the root word is obvious and the usual rules apply for adding suffixes beginning with vowel letters.

Sometimes there is no obvious root word.

tremendous	poisonous
enormous	dangerous
jealous	mountainous
prosperous	famous
joyous	various
ravenous	nervous

Can you earn 40 points this week?

Group 2:

Suffix -ous

Please can you practise these spellings for next week?

These words contain the suffix -ous which is most often used to change concrete nouns (palpable things) to abstract nouns (qualities).

Sometimes the root word is obvious and the usual rules apply for adding suffixes beginning with vowel letters.

Sometimes there is no obvious root word.

enormous	poisonous
jealous	dangerous
joyous	famous
ravenous	nervous

Can you earn 40 points this week?

