

Group 1:

ough

Can you practise these spellings for next week?

‘ough’ is one of the trickiest spellings in English – it can be used to spell a number of different sounds.

The left-hand spellings all have the most common ‘aw’ sound. What sound does o-u-g-h make in the other words?

ought	rough
bought	tough
thought	enough
nought	cough
brought	though
fought	although

Can you earn 40 points this week?

Group 2:

ough

Can you practise these spellings for next week?

‘ough’ is one of the trickiest spellings in English – it can be used to spell a number of different sounds. These spellings all have the most common ‘aw’ sound.

ought bought
thought
nought
brought fought

Can you earn 40 points this week?