Home Learning Update for parents – 26/03/2020

Hello Walkley families,

We hope you are keeping well. The children have been provided with a daily diet timetable, a Lockdown Learning Log or EYFS Lockdown Learning Log and teaching opportunities on the Class Blog.

Updates on the Class Blogs will cease on Friday 27th March, therefore, work will not be provided over the Easter holidays. Rest assured they will reappear on Tuesday 14th April. I would like my staff to rest where possible as we continue to provide childcare to our key worker families over the Easter break, although requested places have reduced significantly.

Hopefully with a bit of recuperation, we will be back online on the 14th April offering more entertaining and quality education through the Class Blogs. Until then, if you are struggling to keep your children entertained over the 2 week break, here are some helpful suggestions:

100 things to do indoors

Fun things to do at home with your kids

There cannot be a prouder Headteacher in the country of this amazing and close knit team who rise together in the face of adversity and are part of such a strong and supportive community.

Thank you for your overwhelming messages of support that keep us going and keep our morale high. We miss you too. As every day passes we become another step nearer to meeting up again. Take care

Big Hugs

Mrs Sian and the Walkley team
